

DOCTOR'S QUESTIONNAIRE

Instruction: Rate the patient's pain sensitivity, stress and fear according to seen response in numerical rating.

Numerical rating meanings are listed above:

1 - low value.

2 - the middle value.

3 - high value.

The directing possible relations are listed above. (Note that these are only directing advices).

PART I. PATIENT'S PAIN SENSITIVITY

- Patient firmly shut off the eyes before specific parts of the procedure (anaesthetic injection, use of forceps etc.).
- Patient declared that anaesthetics hardly affected him in the past.
- Patient asks for more intensive anaesthetics.
- Patient felt pain during the procedure.
- Other recognizable options.

1

2

3

PART II. PATIENT'S STRESS

- Patient looked nervous before and/or during the procedure.
- Patient was swelling before/during the procedure.
- Patient's respiratory rate increased before/during the procedure.
- Patient reported that he/she is feeling stressful before/during the procedure.
- Other recognizable options.

1

2

3

PART III. PATIENT'S FEAR

- Patient did not or hardly opened mouth, when asked.
- Patient did not come or scheduled later appointment due to his fear (patient's given information).
- Patient asked to stop the procedure or cancelled it just before the start, due to fear.
- Patient asked many questions about the procedure itself and about the operating surgeon.
- Other recognizable options.

1

2

3