

PATIENT'S PART OF USOS

Instruction: Please circle one numerical choice next to every following question.

Numerical meanings are listed above:

1 - disagree/low value.

2 - neither agree or disagree/the middle value.

3 - agree/high value.

1. Rate the highest pain in your previous oral surgery procedure (rate the pain level as 1 if you never had such a procedure before).

1 2 3

2. Rate the highest pain that you are expecting in upcoming oral surgery procedure.

1 2 3

3. I am feeling helpless during the procedures in oral surgery.

1 2 3

4. My heart beats faster before the surgical procedure.

1 2 3

5. My respiratory rate is higher before the surgical procedure.

1 2 3

6. Rate the intention of cancelling the appointment of oral surgery procedure.

1 2 3

DOCTOR'S PART OF USOS

Instruction: Rate the patient's pain sensitivity, stress and fear according to seen response in numerical rating.

Numerical rating meanings are listed above:

1 - low value.

2 - the middle value.

3 - high value.

The directing possible relations are listed above. (Note that these are only directing advices).

PART I. PATIENT'S PAIN SENSITIVITY

- Patient firmly shut off the eyes before specific parts of the procedure (anaesthetic injection, use of forceps etc.).
- Patient declared that anaesthetics hardly affected him in the past.
- Patient asks for more intensive anaesthetics.
- Patient felt pain during the procedure.
- Other recognizable options.

1 2 3

PART II. PATIENT'S STRESS

- Patient looked nervous before and/or during the procedure.
- Patient was swelling before/during the procedure.
- Patient's respiratory rate increased before/during the procedure.
- Patient reported that he/she is feeling stressful before/during the procedure.
- Other recognizable options.

1 2 3

PART III. PATIENT'S FEAR

- Patient did not or hardly opened mouth, when asked.
- Patient did not come or scheduled later appointment due to his fear (patient's given information).
- Patient asked to stop the procedure or cancelled it just before the start, due to fear.
- Patient asked many questions about the procedure itself and about the operating surgeon.
- Other recognizable options.

1 2 3